What is Diwali?

Diwali, popularly known as the "festival of lights" is a five day Hindu festival. For Hindus Diwali is one of the most important festivals of the year and is celebrated in families by performing traditional activities together in their homes. The name translates into "row of lamps" and involves the lighting of small clay lamps filled with oil to signify the triumph of good over evil. Firecrackers are burst because it is believed that it drives away evil spirits. All the celebrants wear new clothes, share sweets & snacks with family members and friends.
